

Social CRM: A solution for engaging with customers on social media

Make every customer conversation count

Businesses can no longer ignore the enormous potential of social media for customer and prospect engagement. Integrating social media activity with CRM can further increase that potential, making it easier to gain valuable customer insights, create collaborative experiences, and build mutually rewarding customer relationships.

When you use social media built within Sage CRM, you can better listen, learn, and immediately engage with your customers.

By making your daily social media activity an integrated part of a CRM system, you can enable your sales, marketing, and customer service teams to become more customer-centric and communications focused. And you can begin to unlock market insight that drives competitive advantage.

Benefits snapshot

- Helps your sales teams to better target prospects and prepare for meeting and sales calls
- Uncovers leads and networking opportunities by listening to relevant social media conversations
- Helps your customer service teams become more proactive, identifying issues as they arise and responding quickly to customer complaints
- Enables businesses to identify how online conversations are affecting their brand
- Drives productivity and increases employee engagement through shared information with business collaboration

“It’s an extra avenue to generate leads and generate interest. If people are finding you in multiple places, they’re more likely to come to you when they’re ready to buy.”
